- ▶ Come join the Regional meeting and get certified in Conflict resolution in the work place at the same time.

This comprehensive 4 hour course will give you the strategies and tips to resolve issues without the confrontation that everyone dreads. Use these strategies with colleges, administration, parents, kids or the boss. Understand the basic ingredients of what causes conflict, the importance of communication and how to develop better listening skills. You will practice the process of resolving discord and learn how to attack the problem, define the issues and move from individual positions to common goals. If you supervise people you won't want to miss this class! George A Walton, Jr. with Anger Solutions Network, will guide you through this wonderful training.
